The Message

Getting Ready to Teach

The Bible Lesson at a Glance
Jesus enjoys being with the children. He invites them to come to Him, and He talks to them and listens to them. He hugs them and holds them on His lap. Jesus’ disciples try to send the children away, but Jesus tells them to let them stay with Him, that children are an important part of His family.

This is a lesson about grace.
Jesus loved the children long ago, and He loves children today. He welcomes all, young or old, into His family.

Teacher Enrichment
“Among the Jews it was customary for children to be brought to some rabbi, that he might lay his hands upon them in blessing; but the Saviour’s disciples thought His work too important to be interrupted in this way. . . . The Saviour understood the care and burden of the mothers who were seeking to train their children according to the word of God. He had heard their prayers. He Himself had drawn them into His presence. . . .

“Thus several mothers came to-

Together, with their little ones. Some of the children had passed beyond the years of infancy to childhood and youth. When the mothers made known their desire, Jesus heard with sympathy the timid, tearful request. But He waited to see how the disciples would treat them. When He saw them send the mothers away, thinking to do Him a favor, He showed them their error. . . . He took the children in His arms, He laid His hands upon them, and gave them the blessing for which they came. . . .

“It is still true that children are the most susceptible to the teachings of the gospel; their hearts are open to divine influences, and strong to retain the lessons received. . . . “Fathers and mothers should look upon their children as younger members of the Lord’s family” (The Desire of Ages, pp. 511-515).

Room Decorations

Continue to use the Israelite home and Temple decor used in Lessons 1-4. Add a large picture or felt stand-up of Jesus. A bulletin board might have a picture of Jesus with children. Around the picture, add photos or handprints/footprints with names of your Sabbath School children written on them.

Welcome
Welcome children at the door. Ask how their week has been—what they are pleased/troubled about. Listen to last week’s memory verse and encourage them to share any experiences from last week’s lesson study. Have them begin the readiness activity of your choice.

1 Readiness Activities
Select the activity most appropriate for your situation.

A. Baby Time
Ask a mother with a small baby to come to your class and talk about how gentle we need to be with babies (optional). Children can role-play caring for a baby with baby dolls.

Debriefing
Allow response time as you ask: Do any of you have a baby in your family? Who loves babies? You were once a baby too. Today we will hear a story about Jesus’ love for babies and little children. But no matter how old you are, Jesus loves you and wants you in His family. Today’s message is:

Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!

Say that with me.

B. “Jesus Loves Me” Plate
Give each child a paper plate on which you have written “Jesus Loves Me” at the top. Help each child write their name at the bottom and draw a picture of themselves in the middle, then decorate the plate. Punch a hole in the center top, and fasten a piece of yarn. Send these home, or you can add them to your room decorations.

Debriefing
Allow response time as you ask: Whom does Jesus love? That’s right! He loves everyone! Jesus loves children. He loves each of you very much. Do you love Him? Today we will hear a story about Jesus and some children. Today’s message is:

Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!

Say that with me.
C. Stay Away

Have a few adults or teenagers stand in a circle, holding hands. Have one adult stand in the middle as Jesus. Allow one child at a time to try to get through the clasped hands of the circle and stand in the middle with Jesus.

Debriefing

Allow response time as you ask: How hard was it to get into the circle? Some people tried to keep children away from Jesus. Today’s message is:

Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!

Say that with me.

You Need:

- adults or teenagers

NOTE: Prayer and Praise appears on page 57.
Bible Lesson

Experiencing the Story
Do the following finger play:

“Let Them Come”

The children came to Jesus. Motion toward self.

His disciples sent them away. Wave away.

Then Jesus said, “Let them come” Motion toward self.

And sit with Me today.” Pat a space beside you.

Setting the scene:
Invite the children to sit around your chair. Ask the children to make their faces sad or happy at the appropriate times in the story.

Read or tell the story.
One day some mothers heard that Jesus was in their town. They had heard a lot about Jesus—He healed people, He told wonderful stories, and He was kind and loving to people. The mothers wanted Jesus to pray for their children and bless them. So they picked up their babies and held their other children’s hands as they went to find Him.

They found Jesus sitting under a tree, talking to some grown-ups. Jesus’ helpers were standing nearby. The helpers looked at all the mothers and children as they came near.

One of the mothers walked right up to the men and said, “Excuse me. We would like to have Jesus pray for our children.”

One of the men frowned. “Jesus is busy,” he answered. “Come back later.” The frowning man didn’t think children were important. He thought they would just bother Jesus.

The mothers and the children were sad [sad faces]. They started to go back home. But Jesus saw what was happening. He stood up and said, “Let the little children come to Me. Don’t stop them. They’re part of My family” [children smile].

Then Jesus opened His arms, and a little girl ran to Him. He picked her up and hugged her. Soon all the children ran to Him.

What do you think Jesus did next? He let the children climb onto His lap. He let them touch His hands and His face. He let them give Him hugs and kisses. Jesus smiled at the children and laughed at their jokes. He held each child in His arms and prayed for them.

The mothers were so happy [happy faces] that Jesus loved all the children and welcomed them into His family. Jesus loves you! We are part of His family too.

Debriefing
Allow response time as you ask:
If you had lived when Jesus did, would you have tried to get close to Jesus? How would you have felt if someone had turned you away? Why do you think Jesus said “Let the children come to Me”? Remember our message? Let’s say it together:

Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!
Bible Study

You Need: Bible

Open your Bible to Luke 18:15-17. Point to the text and say: Here is where we find today’s story in God’s Word, the Bible. Read the text aloud.

Debriefing

Allow response time as you ask: Who brought their children and babies to Jesus? What did they want Jesus to do? What did the disciples tell the mothers? What did Jesus say? And what’s our message?

---

Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!

---

Memory Verse

You Need: Bible

Turn to Luke 18:16. Hold the Bible so that the children can see the verse. Say: This is where our memory verse is found in God’s Word, the Bible. Read the text aloud. “Let the little children come to me” (Luke 18:16, NIV). Have the children repeat the verse after you, using the following motions:

- “Let the little children” Hold hand out with palm down as if to show how tall a small child is.
- “come” Beckon to come with hand.
- “to me.” Point to self.

Luke 18:16 Palms together, then open.

And what's our message? Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!
3 Applying the Lesson

Hugs From Jesus

Say: Jesus loves you! He is not here in person to hug you, but when your mothers or fathers or grandmas or grandpas or Sabbath School teachers hug you, they are acting just as Jesus did. Let’s have a big group hug to remember how much Jesus loves you.

Have the children form a circle, hold hands, step forward as far as possible, then put their arms around the person next to them. Then sing together “Run to Jesus” (Little Voices Praise Him, No. 57).

Debriefing

Allow response time as you ask:

Does Jesus think children are important in His family? What are some of the ways Jesus shows His love to us today? Who does Jesus use to show His love to us? So let’s remember:

Jesus loves me! He wants me in His family!

If available, give each child a surprise gift of a picture of Jesus with some children.

You Need:

- Jesus with children pictures (optional)
- Little Voices Praise Him, no. 57

4 Sharing the Lesson

I’m in Jesus’ Family

Beforehand, write “I’m in Jesus’ Family” on a blank sticky label for each child. Have the children draw/decorate/color their label.

Debriefing

Allow response time as you ask:

Whom does Jesus want in His family? Does He invite everyone to join Him? He especially loves children, but everyone is welcome in Jesus’ family. You’ve just made a name tag that says “I’m in Jesus’ Family.” As you wear your name tag this week, tell someone what it says, and tell them that Jesus wants them in His family too. And remember our message . . .

If available, give each child a surprise gift of a picture of Jesus with some children.

Closing

Pray that this week the children will remember how much Jesus loves them.
Fellowship
Report students’ joys and sorrows (pleased and troubled) as reported to you at the door (as appropriate). Allow time for sharing experiences from last week’s lesson study, and review the memory verse. Acknowledge any birthdays, special events, or achievements. Give a special warm greeting to all visitors.

Let Them Come!

Who is your favorite grown-up besides your parents? Is it your grandma or grandpa? Your Sabbath School teacher? When Jesus was on earth, He was many children’s favorite grown-up.

One day a little boy’s mother heard that Jesus was in her town. She didn’t know where He was, so she asked her neighbor, “I heard that Jesus is in town. Do you know where He is? I want Him to pray for my little boy.”

“Jesus is here?” the neighbor asked. “I’ll come with you to find Him.” The neighbor picked up her little girl. The two mothers walked quickly toward town.

Another mother saw them. “Where are you going?” she asked.

“We’re going to find Jesus,” the first mother said. “Come with us!”

“I will,” said the mother. She called her two children. “Come, children. We’re going to see Jesus!”

As the mothers and their children hurried toward town, they saw more mothers with their children.

“They must know where Jesus is,” the first mother said. “Let’s follow them.” So they did.

Finally they saw Jesus sitting under a tree. He was talking to some grown-ups. Jesus’ helpers were standing nearby. They looked at all the mothers and children.

One of the mothers walked right up to the men and said, “Excuse me. We would like to have Jesus pray for our children.”

One of the men frowned. “Jesus is busy,” he answered. “Come back later.”

The mothers and the children were sad. They started to go back home. But then Jesus stood up and spoke to the frowning man. “Let the little children come to Me. Don’t stop them. God loves them. They’re part of My family.”

Jesus opened His arms, and a little girl ran to Him. He picked her up and hugged her. Soon all the children ran to Him.

What did Jesus do next? He let the children climb onto His lap. He let them touch His hands and His face. He let them give Him hugs.

Jesus smiled at the children. He held each child in His arms and prayed for each one.

The mothers and the children were so happy that Jesus loved all the children and welcomed them into His family. Jesus loves us! We are part of His family too!
Sabbath
Each day this week, read the lesson story together, and use the following motions to review the memory verse.

Let the little children come to me.

- Hold hand out with palm down as if to show how tall a small child is.
- Beckon to come with hand.
- Point to self.

Sunday
Read Luke 18:15-17 together. Ask: “Would you have liked to see Jesus too? What do you think He would say to you?” Hold your child on your lap as you pray together.

Monday
Using a doll, role-play getting ready to meet with Jesus. Help your child wash the doll’s face and hands, comb its hair, and dress it in clean clothes.

Tuesday
Help your child share the name tag made in Sabbath School. If your child didn’t make one, cut out a name tag from paper, and write “I’m in Jesus’ Family” on it. Have your child share it with another child and tell them Jesus loves them.

Help your child name and count all the children they know. Ask: “Does Jesus love all those children, too?”

Wednesday
Talk to your child about prayer. Remind them that prayer is one way we talk to Jesus. Ask: “What would you like to tell Jesus?” Pray together and thank Jesus for hearing your prayers.

Thursday
Have your child sit on your lap as you sing together “Jesus Loves the Little Children” and “Jesus Loves Me.” Have your child close their eyes and imagine they are sitting on Jesus’ lap.

Friday
Role-play children trying to see Jesus, and the disciples keeping them away. Help your child count the number of people in your family. Ask: “How do they show you that they love you? How do you show that you love them?” Thank Jesus for your family.
