When Jesus Was a Boy

Finger Play—Lesson 1

When Jesus was a little boy,

Hold hand out horizontally to show child's height.

He looked a lot like me.

Point to self.

He had two eyes, He had two ears,

Point to eyes, then ears.

And bruises on His knee.

Point to knees.

Sometimes He liked to run and play.

Run in place.

Sometimes He helped make bread.

Pretend to mix bread.

Sometimes He hammered nails
with Dad,

“Hammer” one fist with the other.

Or animals He fed.

Pretend to put pet food on the floor.

When evening came He knelt to pray,

Kneel together.

And sang to God above,

Stand, point upward.

Then turning to His family,

Fold arms across chest.

He thanked them for their love.

I Love God's House

Finger Play—Lesson 3

I love God's house,

I love His day,

I love to sing,

I love to pray,

I love to hear the stories true

That Jesus sends to me and you.

Fingers together to form roof.

Hold seven fingers up.

Point to mouth.

Put hands together.

Palms up as if holding a book.

Point upward, then to self, then to others.

Let Them Come

Finger Play—Lesson 5

The children came to Jesus.

His disciples sent them away.

Then Jesus said, "Let them come

And sit with Me today."

Motion toward self.

Wave away.

Motion toward self.

Pat your lap.
